

The Running Tig ~ Volume 1, Edition 13, Nov. 28

Important Information

Hope everyone had a great Thanksgiving break! Only two more weeks to go - hard to believe how fast the semester has flown by. Just a few updates as we begin to wrap up the fall semester.

Thanks to all who attended the monthly meeting last Monday. The minutes are attached to this email. There will be no December meeting due to exams, so the next meeting will be in January after we begin the spring semester.

Don't forget the Cookie Boogie is happening tomorrow, Monday, November 28th at 7:30PM. It will be a festive time at Evan and Jake's apartment with lots of cookies and Christmas cheer. Rides will be provided for those who need them.

This coming Friday, December 2nd is the prime Frisbee event of the year...the Frisbee Night Smackdown! Due to the soccer playoff game taking place at 7:00PM, the Frisbee game is pushed earlier to a 5:00PM throwoff. The game will take place in the field across from the front steps of Fike. Come on out and let's make Frisbee Friday go out with a bang!

This Week at Practice

Looks like we're gonna get some much needed rain to start off the week, but this isn't a weather forecasting website so don't hold us to that. Nice easy running before the exams commence. We'll continue to meet at 5:00PM this week, everyday.

A Look Ahead

Nov 28 - Cookie Boogie, 7:30PM

Dec 2 - Frisbee Night Smackdown, 5:00PM

Weekly Wisdom

Will tomorrow be this spectacular? Come find out! (BTW this was created only an hour north of Clemson).

Happy running, and as always, go tigs!
